PACIFIC

BUSINESS COLLEGE,

MECHANICS' INSTITUTE,

Post Street, Between Montgomery & Kearney
SAN FRANCISCO.

The importance of a thorough and practical business training for those who contemplate entering the mercantile profession, is too well known to require much comment. Without such knowledge, the young merchant will become involved in many embarrassments which might otherwise be avoided. The youthful aspirant will find himself surrounded by insurmountable difficulties, both in seeking a situation, and in the discharge of its duties after employment is obtained. To have received instruction at a mercantile college, endorsed by the leading merchants of the city, is more effective in winning the favor and confidence of a business firm, than all the letters of introduction which friends can give. The maintains a reputation for thoroughness and systematic training, far surpassing that of any other similar institution on the Pacific coast. Most of the leading merchants of this city have employed graduates from this College, and bear testimony to the practical efficiency of the course here prescribed. The system of actual practice embraces all the varied operations of real business. A Ladies' Department has lately been added to this popular institute. This spirit of enterprise cannot fail to draw forth the well wishes of the public.

Pacific Business College

A free circular of information,

A CARD

We refer to the leading merchants and business men of San Francisco, California, are at the present time, employing men who have completed the prescribed course of study at the Pacific Business College, and we take pleasure in stating that we have found them well posted in accountantship and the general principles of business, showing conclusively that they have been subjected to a thorough drill in those important matters, by experienced and competent instructors.

We cheerfully recommend the College as being in our opinion, an institution of intrinsic merit, and well worthy of the confidence and support of the community.

A CHANGE OF THE MOON.

A plain, clever man is my neighbor Gray,
And we often take counsel together,
He lives in a farm-house over the way,
And is wise in respect to the weather;
He watches all signs night, morning and noon,
But puts his great faith in a change of the moon.

In the dull, drizzly May, when the signs were all bad,
And day after day it kept raining,
When the farmers were sad, and the women were mad,
And all the wide world were complaining;
Farmer Gray went on piping that very same tune,
"It will never clear off till a change of the moon."

I admire his great faith, for the east wind blew strong,
From icebergs and isles of the ocean,
The moon had changed thrice, while the storm kept along,
But my neighbor still stuck to his notion;
At length it cleared up, near the coming of June,
Two days and a half from a change of the moon!

In the long summer drought, when the springs had run dry,
Not a sign of a rain cloud appearing,
Neighbor Gray, who knew the wherefore and why
Spake out, and his accents were cheering,
"We are bound to have different weather soon
For to-morrow, you know, there's a change of the moon."

I sit by his fire, on a sharp winter's night,
When the glass below zero is ranging,
My neighbor instructs me with honest delight,
(For his faith in the moon is unchanging),
That a thaw will set in by Saturday noon,
For just at that time comes a change of the moon

Heat and cold, wet and dry, or whatever the grief,
Under which our poor earth may be lying,
Neighbor Gray knows the source whence must come our relief;
No use of this groaning and sighing;
He tells all he meets that the change must come soon,
We must wait, my dear friends, till a change of the moon."

[illegible] for the evil [illegible] school.
[illegible] needed,
[illegible] old philosophical rule.
[illegible] more causes than needed.
[illegible] enough, the rest let us prune.
[illegible] things proceed from a change of the moon

A PARSEE, THE JEW AND THE CHRISTIAN.—A Jew entered a Parsee temple and beheld the sacred fire.

"Hail," said he to the priest, "do ye worship the fire?"

"Not the fire," answered the priest, "it is an emblem of the sun, and of the genial heat he gives."

"Do you then worship the sun as your God?" asked the Jew. "Know ye not this luminary is also the work of the Almighty Creator?"

"We know it," replied the priest "but the uncultivated man requires a sensible sign in order to form a conception of the most high. And is not the sun the incomprehensible source of light, an image of that invisible Being who blesses and preserves all things?"

The Israelite thereupon remonstrated:

"O ye people, then, distinguish the type from the original? They call the sun their God; and descending from this to baser objects, they kneel before an earthly flame. Ye amuse the outward but blind the inward eye: and while ye adore the earthly, ye withdraw from the heavenly light. Thou shalt not make unto thee any image or likeness."

"Whom then designate the Supreme Being?" asked the Parasee.

"We call him Jehovah Adonai; that is, the Lord who is, who was, and who will be," answered the Jew.

"Your appellation is grand and sublime," said the Parasee, "but it is awful too."

The Christian then drew nigh and said, "We call him Father!"

The Pagan and the Jew looked at each other and said "Here is at once an image and reality; it is a word of the heart."

Therefore they raised their eyes to heaven, and said, with reverence and love, "Our Father!" And they took each other by the hand, and they all three called one another brothers."

THE RAINBOW.—The poets feigned the rainbow to be the residence of certain aerial creatures, whose delight it is to sport and wanton in the clouds

"I took it for a fairy vision
Of some gay creature of the element,
That in the colors of the rainbow live,
And play in the plighted clouds."

Shakspeare is the only writer who has alluded to the colors reflected on the eye when suffused with tears. The rainbow, which not improbably, first suggested the idea of arches, though beautiful in all countries, is more particular so in mountainous ones; for independent of their frequency, it is impossible to conceive anything more grand than the appearance of this fine arch when its points rests upon the sides of a narrow valley, or on the peaks of mountains of precipitous mountains. The Scandinavians believed it to connect earth with heaven and gave it for guardian a being called Heimdaller. It is impossible to see a rainbow without feeling admiration towards the power which forms it. One of the glories which are said to surround the throne of heaven, is a rainbow like an emerald, in the Apocalypse it is described as encircling the head of an angel; in Ezekiel the four cherubims are compared to a cloud arched with it."

VERSATALITY OF EVIL.—Wise men will apply their remedies to vices, not to names; to causes of evil which are permanent, not the occasional or acts by which they act and the fashionary modes in which they appear. Otherwise you will be wise, historically a fool in practice. Seldom have two ages the same fashion in their pretext and same modes of mischief. Wickedness is a little more inventive. While you are discussing the fashion is gone by. The same vice assumes a new body. The spirit transmigrates, and far from losing its principle of life by the change of its appearance, it is renovated in its new organs with fresh vigor of a juvenile activity. It walks abroad, it continues its ravages, whilst you are gibbeting the carcass or demolishing the tomb. You are terrifying yourself with ghosts and apparitions, while your house is the haunt of robbers. It is thus with all those who, attending only to the shell and husk of history, think they are waging war with intolerance, pride, and cruelty, whilst, under color of abhorring the ill principles of antiquated parties they are authorizing and feeding the same odious vice in different factions, and perhaps in worse.

A REMEDY FOR THE BLUES.—When Whitlock was about to embark as Cromwell's envoy to Sweden, 1655, he was much disturbed in mind as he rested in Harwich on the preceding night, which was very stormy, while he reflected on the distracted state of the nation. A confidential servant slept in an adjacent bed, who, finding that his master could not sleep, said:

"Pray, sir, will you give me permission to ask you a question?"

"Certainly."

"Pray, sir, don't you think God governed the world very well before you came into it?"

"I suppose so."

"Then, sir, don't you think that he will govern it quite as well when you are gone out of it?"

"Certainly."

"Then, sir, pray excuse me, but don't you think you may as well trust him to govern it as long as you are in it?"

To this question Whitlock had nothing to say in reply, and, turning about, soon fell asleep.

WOMAN'S INFLUENCE.—Like the olive tree—said to fertilize the surrounding soil—there are some few ministering angels in female's guise among us all, and about our paths, who serve to cheer and adorn life. Our amusements are insipid unless they contribute to them; our efforts of noblest ambition feeble unless they applaud; its reward valueless unless they share them! There are, too, some rude spirits in the world whose nobler nature female influence admirably serves to refine and temper; and perhaps it is not extreme eulogium of the poet—that without that influence many a man had been "a brute indeed!" The concurrence of both sexes is as necessary to the perfection of our being, as to the existence of it: Man may make a fine melody; but woman is also required to make up harmony.

☞ Why is a coquette like a miser? Because she never gives assent.

SOMEREMARKABLE MEN.

THE SUSPICIOUS MAN.—Suspicions, a little of it, is most as good as wisdom, but is one of those kind of diseases that men are not to have small. It is like the measles—if they have it, they have it all over.

A suspicious man is almost always a cunning man; and a cunning man is generally a rogue.

What the happiness of a suspicious man consists in I never could tell. It is certainly not in friendship, for he is afraid to trust his own brother; it cannot be in conversation, for he believes every man lies; nor in affection, for he looks upon the artlessness, even of children, as the gems of fraud.

If a man is born with this trait, it is always the stoutest one he has got, and about the only one; for suspicions are like sheep sorrel, a vinegary weed that runs every generous plant out of the soil.

If a man learns to be suspicious, it only proves that he has been to bad schools, where not much of anything else was taught.

Nobody but a fool would lay aside all caution to undertake to go through this world like a lamb frisking his tail; nobody but a rogue would learn any more suspicion than he was actually obliged to.

THE WISE MAN.—Wisdom is a six horse team, with a careful driver on the box. Yea! a wise man is an iron-clad elephant chewing his cud.

But th's world is full of wisdom that never comes out of its hole; that always roosts on the top limbs of a tree and hoots at the wayfaring men, but cannot show him out of the wilderness.

These kind of wise men are like old guideboards at the crotch of the roads with the lettering all washed off—wooden prophets, worse than the news.

Wisdom is made out of faith and virtue and truth, seasoned with toil and experience, and sceneted with modesty. This kind of wisdom is full as glorious as it is scarce.

But experience, without doubt, is the boss school-master of worldly wisdom. He is the one who taught Adam and wife their first lesson, and he has never been out of a job since. His school keeps all day Saturday and Sundays too, and has but one vacation in it, and that is when all hands sleep.

But say what you will, wisdom is a rare bird, anyhow. There is lots of folks that can show you the mule that kicked them last, but it takes one of your classical scholars, one of your blooded wisdomers, to point out the mule that is going to kick next.

Buy wisdom my friends, whenever it is in the market, for she is a harp with twelve thousand strings.

THE EFFEMINATE MAN.—The effeminate man is a weak pen tree.

He is a cross between root beer and gingerpop, with the cork left out of the bottle over night.

He is fresh water mermaid lost in a cow pasture, with his hands filled with candelions.

He is a tea-urn full of whipped sillybub—a kitten in pantalet—a sick, monkey with a blonde moustache.

He is a vine without any tendrils—a fly drowned in sweet oil—a paper kite in a dead calm.

He lives like the butterflies—no body can tell why. He is as harmless as a cents worth of spruce gum, and as useless as a shirt-button without any button hole.

He is as lazy as a bread poll, and has no more hope than a last years' grass hopper.

He is a man without any gall and a woman without any gizzard.

He goes through life on his tip-toes and dies like cologne water spilt on the ground.

ADVICE TO A SHOEMAKER'S APPRENTICE.—Young man the Bible says, "Many that are first shall be last; and the last first." Commit that to memory and consider it particularly applicable to the trade you are about to learn. A desire to learn should be "upper" most in your mind, and, therefore "saw" of your attention should be on your work during working hours. Always do that which "seams" right, and in all your walks of life have due regard to the welfare of your "sole." Remember that the darkest cloud has a silver "lining," and that a "stitch" in time save nine. If troubles beset you, "peg" away to overcome them. "Pare" off the rough "edges" of you character, "lift" yourself above bad company, and "counter" act all bad influences. In your dealings with mankind, always "toe" the mark. "Strap" all sources of information you can. Should you marry, do not "welt" your wife. Do not remain out late at night, but go home in the "evening" of the evening. Should you ever become a public speaker stick closely to the "thread" of your discourse and "wax" eloquent as you proceed. Always try to govern your temper, and never "bristle" up at trifles. Avoid attendance at "balls" for their influence is bad, as they are likely to get you into some "scrapes." Love and cherish those dependent upon you, your neighbor as yourself, "last," and your life is "closed" up and "finished," may you go to the haven of rest promised to the faithful.

INFLUENCE OF HAPPY CHILDREN.—The memory of early happiness is a treasure-house of sweet comfort and consolations. Its pure, simple, earnest joys are the wells to draw from whenever we sit down in thirst and weariness by the dusty highway of life. Of this one good the world can never cheat us. The sunshine of those days reaches across our little stretch of life and mingles its rays with those which beam from the heaven of our hopes. The actual present of the adult life, and the materials which enter into it are made up, more than we generally suppose, of reminiscence. We ruminate, like the kine. We lay up in the receptacles of memory abundance of undigested material, which we recall and appropriate to our refreshment and nourishment; and this process of reminiscence—of living over again—grows upon us as we grow into years, till at last it becomes our all. Exhausted power has no resource but to work upon its old play and its old achievements. How sad he is who can never go back to his childhood without a shudder; who can never recall a period when his life was filled with sweet and simple satisfaction!

MOURNING.—The ancients had queer idea of mourning for the dead. The Lydians regarded mourning as unmanly, and compelled men who went into mourning to put on female garments. In Greece, when a popular General died, the whole army cut off their hair and the manes of their horses. At the present day, the Arabian woman stain their hands and feet with indigo, which they suffer to remain e gut days. They also carefully abstain from milk during the time, on the ground that is white color does not accord with the gloom of their minds. In China the mourning color is white. Mourning for a parent or a husband is required there by law, under penalty of sixty blows and a year's banishment. When the Emperor dies, all his subjects let their hair grow for one hundred days. In the Fejee Island on the tenth day of the morning the women scourge all the men except the highest chiefs. Another fashionable custom there requires the friends and relatives of the deceased to assemble on the fourth day after the funeral, and picture to themselves the amount of corruption the corpse has sustained by that time. In the Sandwich Islands, persons desirous of going into mourning paint the lower part of their faces black, and knock out their front teeth.

MALE FLIRTS.—What is more detestable than one of them? A flirt of the feminine gender is bad enough, but no more to be compared to one of these than a little innocent blue jay to a henhawk. Not that we could tolerate insincerity on the part of our sex—far from it; but its woman's nature to be gentle and generous sympathetic and loving, and she may be this to all and yet without a spice of coquetry in her composition. Not so with your male flirt. He is very impressible. He falls hopelessly in love; (?) with every new face he happens to meet sighs, looks tender—soft words he drops like honey-dew distilled and refined from his moustaches—and when he has made an impression on some innocent little soul amused to flattery, he pulls up his dickey and walks off in the most recherche and becoming manner, in pursuit of another victim. And thus he goes on from day to day, making love to one and another, and all the time knowing as little of the element as a day old mosquito!—Mrs. Wilkenson.

TOM MOORE who derived his pedigree from Noah, explained it in this way. "Noah had three sons, Shem, Ham, and one more."

A YOUNG LADY, in New York, broke her engagement the other day because her lover presented her with a plain gold ring, instead of a diamond, which she had expected.

☞ A healthy old fellow, who is not a fool, is the happiest creature living.

AFTER THE FUNERAL.

Of all returnings, that one "after the funeral" is the saddest. Who that has ever followed a beloved one to the grave, will say that it is not so? During sickness we went in and out anxious, sorrowing, suffering. The solicitude to relieve and care for and comfort him engrossed us; the fear of losing him excited us; the apprehensions of our desolation in case he should be removed from us, almost drove us to distraction. While death was beneath the home-roof there was hurry and bustle in preparation for the final rites. Friends were sent for, neighbors were present, the funeral arrangements were discussed, the mourning procured, the hospitalities of the house provided for. All was excitment—the loss was then not perceived in all its greatness; but "after the funeral"—after the bustle has all subsided, and things begin to move on as usual, then it is we begin to know what has befallen us. The house seems still and sepulchral, though in the heart of the city, and though its threshold be still trodden by friendly feet, it is as if empty.

The departments—how deserted?—especially the room where he struggled and surrendered in the last conflict. There are the clothes—there are the books—there the ever vacant seat at the family board. During the sickness we had not much noticed these things, for we were ever hopeful that they might be used or occupied again. But now it cannot be, and we perceive the dreadful vacancy everywhere.

Oh how dark and cheerless the night shadows come down "after the funeral!" No moon or stars ever shown so dimly—no darkness ever seemed so utterly dark. The ticking of the clock resounds like bell-strokes all over the house. Such deep silence! No footsteps now on the stairs or in the sick chamber; no nurse or watchers to come and say, "He is not so well" and come and ask for you. No indeed; you may sleep on now and take rest if you can. Ah, poor bereaved heart! It will be long ere the sweet rest you once knew will visit your couch. Slumber will bring again the scenes through which you have just passed. And you will start from it but to find them all too real. God pity the mourner "after the funeral."

☞ At the commencement of the last holiday season, the proprietor of a fancy store promised a suit of clothing to the clerk who should sell the most goods by Christmas. Among the many clerks one was called by his associates "Lucky Jonah." He could take a dollar out of a man's pocket when the man only intended to spend six cents. And the women—bless you! they just handed over their pocket-books and let him take out what he wanted.

His best fellow reports that, "One night Jonah woke me up with: 'I tell you, old fellow if you think that's got cut on in fit, I'll bring down the sheep it was cut from and make it swear to its own wool.' I won't wear out, either. I wore a pair of pants of that stuff for five years, and they're as good now as when I put them on. Take it at thirty cents, and I'll say you owe me nothing. Eh! too dear? Well call it twenty-eight. What d'ye say? Shall I tear it? All right, it's a bargain."

"Jonah was talking in his sleep. I could hear his hand playing about the bed clothes, and then—rip went something, and I had my head under the blanks in perfectly convulsed with laughter, and sure that Jonah had torn the sheet from top to bottom. When I woke up in the morning—alas! unkindest cut of all—I found that the back of my night-shirt was split from the tail to the collar band!"

☞ Josh Billings on rats.—Rats originally cum from Norway, and I wish they originally stayed thar.

They are as uncalled for as a pain in the small of the back.

They can be domesticated dreadful easy—that is as far as getting in cubboards and eating cheese and knawing pie is concerned.

The best way to domesticate them that I ever saw is to surround them gently with a steel trap; you can reason with them to a great advantage.

Cats are migratorious; they migrate whenever they have a mind to.

Pizen is also good for rats; it softens their nature

Rats hate cats—and cats hate rats—and who dont?

I suppose there are between fifty and sixty millions of rats in America. I quote now only from memory—and I don't suppose there is a single necessary rat in the whole lot. This shows at a glance how many waste rats there is. Rats enhance in number faster than shoe pegs do by machinery. One pair of healthy rats is all any man wants to start the business with, and in ninety days, without any outlay, he will begin to have rats to turn off.

Rats, viewed from any platform that you can hang, are unspeakably cussid.

☞ MR. FULLER a Methodist preacher, found it necessary to eke out a scanty living by selling sermons. He called on a lady in a parish where he once labored. As he announced his errand, the lady expressed her horror and surprise. "What! Mr. Fuller, I thought you labored for souls, and not for money." Fuller replied: "A minister can't live on souls; and if he could, he'd soon depopulate such a region as this!"

☞ If girls will kiss, let them perform the ceremony as if they loved it. Don't let them sneak about the thing as if they were purloining cheese, nor drop their heads, "like lilies o'erspread with rain." On the contrary, they should do it with an appetite and when they let go give rise to a report that will make the old folks think that somebody is firing a pistol about the house.

☞ During the war a lady passing from cot to cot through the wards of a hospital, was shocked to hear one fellow laugh at her. She stopped to reprove the wretch'd patient. "Why, madam," said he, "you have given me a tract on the sin of dancing. When I have got both legs shot off!"

☞ A colored youngster in Troy received corporeal punishment at the hands of his ancestors, recently, because his kitten got its head in the milk pitcher. The boy cut off the head to save the pitcher, and then broke the pitcher to get out the head.

☞ One of the most important female qualities is sweetness of temper. Heaven did not give to women fascination and persuasion in order to be surly; it did not make them weak in order to be imperious; it did not give them a sweet voice in order to be employed in scolding.

☞ There is a crows' roost in Kentucky where during winter, it is estimated a million crows gather from all parts of the country. On a dark night, with torchlights, they are killed by hundreds. When the spring comes they disperse to all parts.

☞ At the Yuba City Sunday School, says the Banner, a very juvenile class was asked who was the first man. A bright, blackeyed little girl of three or four summers I spect out, "Adam; and he went into the garden and eat all the apples and God got mad at him!"

☞ "My son, would you suppose that the Lord's Prayer could be engraved on a space no larger than the arena of a nickel cent?" "Well, yes, father, if a cent is as big in everybody's eye as it is in yours, I think there would be no difficulty in putting it on about four times."

☞ Some folks are prodigiously penitent over other people's sins, and seem to think they have a special call to confess them before the whole world. They will gouge their brothers' eyes out rather than have a single mote in them.

☞ The New York Herald says of the ticket: "Grant is stronger than his party. Colfax is the strongest man in the party and the Republican ticket is a strong one." This is only what many candid Democrats believe.

☞ Woman is asserting her rights in France as well as in other countries. The ladies have appeared on the French Bourse in great numbers, and buy and sell stock with a vigor and tact that is [illegible] unknown to the less favored sex.

☞ There is no funeral so sad as to follow the funeral of our own youth, which we have been pampering with fond desires, ambitious hopes, and all the bright berries that hang in poisonous clusters over the path of life.

"Are you alarmed at the approach of the King of Terrors?" said a minister to a sick man. "Oh, no; I have been living six and thirty years with the queen of terrors—the king can not be much worse."

☞ It is a good thing to learn caution by the misfortune of others.

ACROSS LOVERS.

We have recently been informed, says the Auburn, (N. Y.) Advertiser, of a most singular affair occurring during the last winter, and has only just now been made public. It seems that some time in January last a couple of married men, residing not a hundred miles from this city, became, each unsuspected by the other, enamored of said other's better (or worser) half and the matter was carried on so far that each of the fair (or false) ones agreed to elope with her neighbor's husband.

An especially dark night seemed to favor the design, and was chosen by each as the favorable opportunity. The evening train going east from this city conveyed the voyagers on their journey, one couple getting on the rear and the other on the forward car unseen and unsuspected, it having been arranged that the wife in each case should go to the train unaccompanied, and only be joined on board by her "affinity" just at the moment of departure. Arriving at Syracuse, the pairs sought the waiting room at the depot, where they would necessarily be detained for some time while awaiting the train by which to continue the journey, and proceeded to disencumber themselves of the part disguise assumed for the occasion, when, to the unspeakable horror of each couple it was discovered that the affair had failed, for husband number one recognized before him, in the now unveiled face of his recent traveling companion, the lineaments of his own devoted wife, whose excited nerves had hitherto prevented a recognition of her husband's form in the dim obscurity of the railroad car. In a like appalling manner was the stern reality forced upon the other thunder stricken couple, and the early morning train out of Syracuse, westward, brought to this city two disconsolate faithful and consistent couples, whose night journey east, so suddenly executed without apparent cause, occasioned no small wonderment among their nearest neighbors. "The Mistake of a Life time" was not a patch to the thrilling experience thus dished up for these ventures matrimonial, and we are told by the informant, who gave the above particulars, that no more faithful partners can be found in town than are now the members of these two matrimonial firms.

DEMONSTRATED.—A few days ago a party of men was seated in an auction house on Main street, talking politics. One of the number, Jerry O'C., an intelligent and staunch Republican, kept up his "end of the log" with ease. In the course of the discussion a man stepped up and joined the party, the majority of which was Democrats, and listened attentively for some time. The only thing noticeable about the new comer were his solid looks and a general appearance of having quarrelled with soap. As a Democrat clinched his argument with a large-sized negro, the man, looking at Jerry O'C., jerked out, "that's the talk; you bet your guts I'm a Democrat ever time." Jerry eyed him from head to foot, and then replied dryly, "I've not the least doubt of it." "You bet, I can prove it," said the stranger; "I tought in the Confederate army for two years and a half, and am a true-blue Democrat!"—Reese River Reveille.

KINDRED.—Of what avail are riches, wealth, fame, or any other worldly advantages, if we have no friends with whom to share them, if we have no one to be interested in our fate. However sweet the voice of public praise, sweeter far is the approbation of attached and respected kindred and associates! How penetrating to the heart the approving glance of the friend, the participating smile of the relative!

And in the hour of adversity, how precious the privilege to open the full opressed bosom to the compassionating ear of love, to meet a kindly sympathizer our woes, a ready succor for our necessities! Surely no scene on earth can be more touching than the assembled group of the members or a family participating in each others joys and sorrows, brightening by communion the seasons of felicity, softening by confidence the trials of adversity.

"THEN I'LL SEND HIM A KISS."—Little Mary was sitting with her mother on a pleasant evening, while the stars were coming out, and looking up, she said:

"Mamma, who made all these beautiful stars in the sky?"

The mother replied, "Our Heavenly Father, my child."

"Then, mamma, I'll send him a kiss," answered Mary; and suiting the action to the words, she kissed her hand and threw it upward toward the sky.

Was not the offering accepted by the loving Father, who has said to all who do not trust and obey Him, "Kiss the Son lest He be angry and ye perish by the way, when His wrath is kindled but a little?

AT the late Democratic ratification meeting in Grass Valley a procession was formed at the club rooms, to march to the place of meeting, headed by a band of music. As the procession started the band, unfortunately for the occasion, struck up the thrilling patriotic air of Marching Through Georgia. A prominent Democrat immediately stepped out of the ranks swearing he would not go in a procession where that tune was played, "for," said he "d—n them, that is the tune they played when they took me to Alcatraz!"—Neville Appeal.

INFLUENCE OF THE SEXES.—No man ever felt in the presence of a man, the same awe and restraint that he feels in the presence of a woman; and no woman is ever so much put on her good behavior before one of her own sex as she is in the presence of a man. Here, then, is an immense moral influence which the sexes are constantly exerting over each other; and in the aggregate its effects must be beyond estimation. Nothing can be wiser, then, than the arrangement of society which God has established where the sexes associate freely together.

SOUND DEMOCRACY.—Thomas T. Bowie, Governor elect of Maryland, at a Democratic meeting in Baltimore, spoke as follows concerning the bond-holders:

If there be any class of men I would sooner tax, it would be those men who furnished means to carry on the most unholy and cruel war in history. [Applause.] I would not tax them as property because I can read upon the face of these bonds a contribution to an unholy and wicked purpose.

HAPPINESS.—What need have we of riches? said a Chinese moralist. Produce me the man, who, content with a straw cottage and a little enclosure of canes, employs himself in reading the writings of wise men, or in discoursing on virtue; who desires no other recreations than to refresh himself with the cool air by moonshine, and whose whole solicitude is to preserve in his heart the love of innocence, and of his neighbor.

MODESTY.—Beauty is never so lovely and attractive as when it is hidden beneath the veil of retiring modesty. The most beautiful flower of the garden that most attracts and charms the beholder's eye, is sweetly peeping from the midst of its curtain of green leaves, which serves partially to protect it from the sun and elements, and renders its charms doubly interesting and beautiful.

☞ "Did your wife have an income last year?" asked an internal revenue officer of a citizen of Carlinsville, Ill. "Yes she had twins—both girls."

☞ A young lady being asked by a boring politician which party she was most in favor of replied that she prefered a wedding party.

☞ Brick Pomeroy, of the La Crosse Democrat, was lately refused membership in the Wisconsin Editorial Association on account of indecency.

☞ Truths are first clouds, then rain, then harvests and food. The philosophy of the one century is the common sense of the next.

☞ A Bachelor, according to the latest definition, is a man who has lost the opportunity of making a woman miserable.

☞ A man who cannot mind his own business is not fit to be trusted with the buiness of others.

☞ A still and quiet conscience is of more value than all earthly dignities.

☞ No man ever offended his conscience but, first or last, it was revenged upon him for it.

☞ With the wicked, as with a bad dog, silence is more formidable than noise.

LETTER FROM GOLD RUN.

GOLD RUN, August 13th, 1868.

EDITOR ENQUIRER:—Since my last I have procured the following items for your valuable journal:

The claims in this vicinity are still returning their owners fair remuneration for the labor and capital invested. Messrs. Stewart & Kinder's claims are still paying largely. The Gold Run claim cleaned up last week some $2,000, the proceeds of twenty days' washing, of ten hours per day; this claim has been paying well for the last season or two, and is now under the supervision of M. W. W. Anderson. The old Hoekeard claim, now owned by these gentlemen, also cleaned up last week about $1,500 or $1,600. This is considered a large yield, taking into view the disadvantages under which they have been laboring, being troubled with a large lot of blue pipe clay, and an almost unlimited quantity of large rocks, but they have about got through them now, and the claim will probably pay about $100 per day of twelve hours, henceforth, which is "big pay" in this vicinity. This claim is under the supervision of Mr. Stephen Beers, a worthy and efficient foreman, and a practical miner. These gentlemen also own a large run of ground sluices, tail-flumes, under-currents, which pay them largely.

Messrs. Moore, Miner & Co., have again cleaned up from $1,200 to $1,500 after a run of twenty days. This claim has been bothered a great deal with a very hard bottom, so much so that they have been forced to use powder, putting in small blasts of from fifteen to forty kegs, in their hard bottom, to "heave it up," and loosen it so that they may be able to wash it away faster and easier with the pipes. These gentlemen are also about to commence to run a tunnel through the bed rock to enable them to get some thirty or forty feet deeper, thereby giving them a much higher bank. This claim is under the management of Mr. J. B. Taylor, one of the proprietors, and under whose management we may expect to see it pay largely for some time to come.

The claim of Messrs. Wolcott & Wells, cleaned up last week after a run of ten days and nights, but I have not been able to ascertain the amount, but am satisfied that it paid well, as usual. Mr. Wells, one of the owners, looks after the interest of this claim.

Jason Brinks & Co., cleaned up last Saturday after eighteen days' run the sum of $2,100. This claim has always paid well and is likely to continue its well doing as long as the ground lasts, being considered a very valuable location.

The Council of Freedoms' Defenders has a large membership, numbering 154, with more additions every meeting. Owing to the excessive warmth or their Hall, they have changed their time of meeting from once a week to once in two weeks, on Saturday evening. They extend a cordial invitation to members of the circle at Dutch Flat to visit them when convenient.

The Good Templars' Lodge here numbers some seventy-five members, with initiations every meeting, and they feel confident that they will gain supremacy over King Alcohol.

On last Saturday night the Glee Club of this place, serenaded the fair, young beauties, with some beautiful pieces of music, by the soft light of the moon.

Mr. S. S. Noble, our shadow taker and photographic artist, has sold out and is going to leave, he has had a good run of business here but thinks he can do better below.

Business of all kinds is dull here at the present, but is likely to become lively again soon.

WATER BREAK.—On Tuesday night last, the water broke through into one of the tunnels of the Sacramento Company's claim, better known as Kinder, White & Co's., situated near Lowell Hill. There being a considerable amount of water dripping from the top of the tunnel, and it being cold and disagreeable, the night shift quit work about twelve o'clock, midnight. When the morning shift went to the tunnel to go to work, they found about three hundred inches of water running through it. The water had washed the track out and the dump away. About 150 feet of the back of the tunnel, which was seven hundred feet in length, filled up. The whole work inside and out, was completely destroyed. The tunnel is situated about one mile from the Company's hydraulic works and about three hundred feet from the spring discovered by Fremont and named Mammoth Spring. There is about fifty inches of water continually flowing from this spring, and it is supposed that the basin of this or some adjacent one, had broken through into the tunnel and caused the rush of water. The workmen in the tunnel, the day previous to the break, struck gravel in the top of it which prospected very rich. They now propose to run a branch tunnel, commencing some six hundred feet from the mouth of the old one, and run around this supposed basin. On Thursday evening the water had abated to about seventy-five inches.

BRUTAL AFFRAY.—A most brutal affair occurred on the road between this place and Alta, on last Sunday afternoon. Some young men came down from Alta, to this place and spent the day carousing about town, and got pretty well under the influence of liquor. About four o'clock they started home, and when a short distance above town they met a Chinaman and assaulted him, just then a gentleman passing put a stop to the fight, but not until the Chinaman had been badly beaten. Officer Cooke swore out a warrant and arrested them. An examination was held on Monday, when James Riley was held on a a charge of an assault and battery. The case was tried before Judge Brown on Monday afternoon, the jury failed to agree. On Tuesday the case was again tried, and Riley found guilty and fined $100. The money was immediately paid over and the man discharged.

DOG FIGHT.—A few days since one of those intellectual entertainments known as a dog fight occured near the Old Corner Saloon. The contest was between two "yeller" dogs, on one side, and another yell-ow dog on the other. The fight was contested warmly, and was loudly applauded by an interested crowd of bystanders. After a time the yell-ow dog was compelled to yell enough, and succumb to a superiority of numbers, and turn tail on his rude assailants, and leave the field of his shame. As he turned his tail to the foe it was immediately seized by them and he was compelled to drag them along with him. At this juncture a fourth dog appeared and seized the clinging "purps," tore them lose from their hold and put an end to the—narrative

TEMPERANCE LECTURE.—James M. Brown Esq. lectured on the subject of temperance in the Union church, at this place on last Tuesday evening. The speaker's remarks were quite interesting, and very logical, and were calculated to stir up a feeling of interset in the minds of his hearers, and we do not doubt that they will be conducive of much good. With a proper spirit of interest awakened in the minds of the people, this important work of reform must be pushed ahead. The speaker's idea that prohibition is necessary to a proper reform, is correct, but he stands as one of the few sentinels upon the extreme outposts of that apparently distant camp; still, we hope at no distant day to see this important measure carried out. We hope our temperance people will see fit to invite Mr. B., to visit them again.

At a regular meeting of Olive Lodge No. 218, I. O. G. T., at Gold Run, held, August 2d, 1868, the following officers were elected for the present term: W. C. T., James S. Tam; W. V. T., Miss Mary E. Cantrel; W. S., Henry Moore; W. F. S., Ed., Willard; W. T., J. Cantrel; W. M.,——; W. I. G., Miss L. Danforth; W. O. G., Horace Brester. The following officers were appointed: W. R. H. S., Miss N. A. Bunton; W. L. H. S., Miss Fanny Mazier; W. A. S., M. W. Marathron; W. D. M.,——; W. C. David Shankland.

GRANT & COLFAX.—A letter from Samuel Carrier, Secretary of the Blue Canyon (Kearsarge precinct) Grant & Colfax club, says that they have now thirty-four names upon their roll, and that they will, without doubt, double the number before election.

The Public Schools closed yesterday

"SOME things have been done whilst others were doing," is an old saw, that will probably never lose its force. How truly does it apply to our place, and time: Mining regions, in the distant territories, where the foot of the white man, until within a few months, was comparatively unknown, have been discovered, and shafts sunk, tunnels run, and fortunes made, and spent in many instances, since the discovery of the blue lead, in this place. Yet our claim owners, our moneyed and business men have been content to loiter, and let their business languish, and their mines lie idle; to let their property depreciate in value, their buildings remain tenantless, and go to rack and ruin, to let their money lie idle, and they, themselves, acquire, loose and idle habits, and incapacitate themselves for business and enterprise, and all this from the want of proper foresight. Fifteen thousand dollars, an insignificant sum when compared to the great benefits that would accrue from its proper investment, we are persuaded would open up in a thorough manner the most expensive claim in this section, and when one claim is properly developed, the rest will be easy. Money always seeks profitable investment, and we do not know of anything that is more remunerative than gravel mining, and hence, it would be much better for those who have money invested in property, which is now not drawing any interest, to throw in, gratuitously, or otherwise, to one common purse, the necessary amount to develop a mine on the ancient channel, with the opening of which their property would immediately advance in value sufficiently to repay them for the outlay. We do not want to think that our people are wanting in enterprise, yet, the fact forces itself forward in hideous proportions.

President Johnson is so much in the habit of drawing out the thread of his verbosity finer than the thread of his argument, we are glad to record the fact that he lately sent a veto message to Congress of unparalleled brevity. The bill which failed to secure his august approval was that which provided for the discontinuance of the Freedmen's Bureau. As his Excellency is willing to give his feeble help to the Seymourites during the campaign, he did his little utmost to prevent one of the planks of the Democratic platform from being knocked out. The admission of the Southern States to Congress has already done much to mitigate the stimulated grief of the Democracy at the dreadful condition of the country, and the discontinuance of that bete noire of their's, the Freedmen's Bureau, would leave them no chance whatever for the luxury of woe. So Johnson vetoed the bill, with a message of eight lines, cunningly saying that "time would not permit" him to specify his reasons. Fortunately, Congress was able to pass the bill over his veto, and it is now a law.—Alta.

FIVE MILES PER DAY.—Says the Sacramento Bee, the iron on the Central Pacific east of Wadsworth was being laid last week at the rate of five miles per day, and the chief of the graders sent back word from the advance that if the track layers could not do better than five miles per day they would never see his men again until they had reached Salt Lake! He can grade more than they can lay at only five miles a day! It is about 110 days to the first of December, and at this rate they would give us 550 more! which will reach the vicinity of Upper Weber Canyon, or 758 miles from Sacramento! Taking the work on both sides, the railroad is coming to us half as fast as a man can walk!

NO FREIGHT BY RAILROAD.—The Virginia Trespass of Tuesday furnishes the following:

The order has gone out to take no more freight on the Central for anybody. The company is so crowded with its own freight—iron for construction—as to be unable to carry for the public. We are informed that 39 vessels are now coming due in 30 days, all carrying only iron and rolling stock, fishes, chairs, spikes and other material for the Central. This order will set us back to old times style, and if strictly adhered to will seriously incommode our business public. Wagon trains will come in vogue again, and the Placerville road have another run. Wells, Fargo & Co., and the Pacific Union Express each run a car each trip, and express and fast freight matter can come; but we look for a rise in the tariff.

THE Nevada Transcript says: "A short time since, J. Duffy, of Lowell Hill, Little York township, was thrown from his buggy and had his leg broken. Mr. Duffy has been exceedingly unfortunate. He had his leg broken last Fall, and as he only had the one leg, he was still unable to walk at the time of the late accident. His left leg has been twice broken and twice amputated, and now his right leg is broken for the third time. Few men have survived so many serious accidents.

ON last Thursday afternoon a China doctor went to see a patient who was afflicted with a sore leg, and when there spoke about his pay, and immediately two friends of the sick Chinaman, attacked the doctor with Chinese meat cleavers and cut several terrible gashes in his head. Officer Cooke was called and though he made diligent search has not, as yet, been able to find the assailants.

AN accident occured on the C. P. R. R., a few days since, near Gold Run. A freight train was standing on the track, and a detatched engine went down for the purpose of "wooding up," and ran into the freight train, which had neglected to put out signals, the engine was smashed up pretty badly, and one man had his foot considerably injured.

THE Grammer School of this place had a public examination at the Theater last night, but the lateness of the hour precludes our making an extended statement of it in this issue, but probably will in our next.

DASHAWAYS.—The Dashaway Association will meet next Monday evening at the School house. Speaking and singing will be the principal features of the evenings entertainment. The public are invited to attend.

IF you want to pass the evening pleasantly, and have the satisfaction of spending your profitably, you should attend the Ladies Festival at the Theatre. Admission free.

THE property of this Association is located in San Francisco, on the Central Ocean Macadamized road, about a mile and a half from the now thickly settled portion of the city, and fronting on the New Park, of one thousand acres, recently located by the Board of Supervisors; Lake Honda, and the property of the Spring Valley Water Company adjoining on the east. The magnificent reservoir of the Water Company, now nearly completed, will always be an object of attraction to parties visiting San Francisco.

SCHOOL LOTS are reserved in adjoining blocks.

The principal object in organizing the above Association has been to get a desirable property to offer those persons in the interior who wish to purchase a Homestead in San Francisco, on Easy Terms, and also, in a locality where real estate is daily increasing in value, so that they may reasonably expect that the lots purchased will be marketable at a handsome advance on the purchase price before all the assessments have been paid in.

The lots are offered at $250 each, in payments extending through one year. First, payment $40; balance in monthly installments of $20—without interest.

The lots average in size about 25 by 120 feet. None of the lots have less than 25 feet front. Corner lots 32½ feet front by 100 feet in depth.

DR. PERRAULT'S studies have been almost exclusively devoted to the cure of the various forms of Nervous and Physical Debility, the results of injurious habits acquired in youth, which usually terminate in impotence and sterility, and permanently induce all the concomitants of old age. Where a secret infirmity exists involving the happiness of a life and that of others, reason and morality dictate the necessity of its removal, for it is a fact that premature decline of the vigor of manhood, matrimonial unhappiness, compulsory single life, etc., have their sources in causes, the germ of which is planted in early life, and the bitter fruit tasted long after-ward; patients, laboring under this complaint, will complain of one or more of the following symptoms: Nocturnal Emissions, Pains in the Back and Head, Weakness of Memory and Sight, Discharge from the Uretha on going to stool or making water, the Intellectual Faculties are Weakened, Loss of Memory ensues, Ideas are clouded and there is a disinclination to attend to business, or even to reading, writ ign or the society of friends, etc. The patient will probably complain of Dizziness, Vertigo and that Sight and Hearing are Weakened and sleep disturbed by dreams, melancholy, sighing, palpitations, faintings, coughs and slow fever; while some have external rheumatic pain, bness of the body. Some of the most common symptons are pimples in the face and aching in different parts of the body. Patients suffering from this disease, should apply immediately to Dr. PERRAULT, either in person or by letter as he will guarantee a cure of Seminal Emissions and Impotence in six to eight weeks.

Patients suffering from venereal diseases in any stage Gonorrhea, Gleet, Strictures, Bubo Ulcers, Cutaneous Eruptions, etc., will be treated successfully. All Syphilitic and Mercurial Taints entirely removed from the system.

DR. PERRAULT'S diplomas are in his office, where patients can see for themselves that they are under the care of a regularly educated practitioner. The best references given if required.

Patients suffering under chronic diseases, can call and examine for themselves. We invite investigation; claim not to know everything, nor to cure everybody, but we do claim that in all cases taken under treatment we fulfil our promises. We particularly request those who have tried this boasted doctor, and that advertised physician, till worn out and discouraged, to call upon us.

Low charges and quick cures. Ladies suffering from any complaint incidental to their sex, can consult the doctor, with the assurance of relief.

Female Monthly Pills.

DR. PERRAULT IS the only agent in California for DR. BIOT'S Female Monthly Pills. On the receipt of five dollars, these Pills will be sent by mail or express to any part of the world, secure from curiosity or damage.

Persons at a distance can be cured at home, by addressing a letter to Dr. PERRAULT, corner of Sacramento and Montgomery streets, Rooms 10 and 11, or Box 973, P. O., San Francisco, stating the case as minutely as possible general habits of living, occupation, etc., etc.

THE

EAGLE PIANO-FORTE CO.

650 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.

The above company is composed of a number of practical and experienced Piano-Forte builders, sustained by abundant Capital, and whose especial object is to manufacture Piano-Fortes embracing.

Every modern Improvement of

REAL MERIT.

While other manufacturers embody their own special improvements in their instruments, they are deterred from using, the perhaps equally valuable improvements of others in regard to other portions of the instrument, by the often exorbitant royalties or fees demanded by the Patentees for the privilege, so that although we have frequently announcements of Pianos embracing every modern improvement, there are really none at present that do so. It is the determination of the EAGLE PIANO-FORTE CO., to disregard all considerations of expense in procuring the rights to use any and every improvement which has met the approval, and may be recommended to them by the leading Pianists of the day, such as the Abbe Listz, Thalberg, Gottschalk and others.

This Company has boldly embarked with the above purpose, confident that the American people are prepared to approve, appreciate, and sustain their effort to produce,

The most complete and best Piano-

FORTE IN THE WORLD,

While the expense of manufacturing will necessarily be increase by the purchase of these rights and privileges, it will not be permitted to increase the retail price of any of their instruments. The same style and finish of instruments will be sold as cheaply as those of any other good manufacturer.

The Company being new is disposed to expend its exertions more for establishing its reputation and the reputation of its work than for present profits, confident that this course will be more profitable in the end.

Every department of the manufacturing being under the hands of a practical workman, who is at the same time a member of the Company and interested in its success and reputation, insures an exactness with regard to the character of the work that cannot otherwise be obtained.

The best recommendation for these Pianos lies in the fact that they are rapidly finding their way into the parlors of all the leading professional and amateur Pianists of the day in preference to all others.

Confident that their instruments will be their own best recommendation, the Eagle Piano-Forte Co., are anxious to effect the early introduction of one or more of their Pianos into every community, and to this end they offer

Extraordinary inducements to

MUSIC TEACHERS AND OTHERS

Who may be able to aid them in their effort.

School Committees and others desiring instruments for Public Institutions will be offered special inducements.

Ladies and others having charge of Charitable Fairs, Festivals, &c., will be offered special inducements together with suggestions by which the proceeds of their benevolent efforts may be greatly increased; all such are especially invited to correspond with us.

Every instrument manufactured by the Eagle Piano-Forte Co., is made out of the very best and most suitable material selected from all parts of the world, most thoroughly seasoned and prepared, and warranted, in every respect for five years, as to material and workmanship, and to stand in any climate.

Orders promptly and carefully filled from the the large assortment always on hand.

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

PREACHING at the Union Church to-morrow morning at the usual hours.

THERE will be preaching in the M. E. Church on Sunday at the usual hours, morning and evening.

[COMMUNICATED.]

TO THE CHILDREN AND YOUTH OF DUTCH FLAT.

Society is full of aimless, and useless persons—drones in the hive of humanity—who live only to eat up the honey and sweets of industry and labor of the true and noble. Idling away a life of precious and glorious opportunities; seemingly only "float-wood" upon the river of time; carried by the tide of circumstances and influences that surround them however evil and debasing, sweeping them to the ocean of destruction. Of this character there are fifty thousand in this State, whose highest ambitions and aspirations may be satisfied at most any saloon. Thirty thousand persons in this State stand behind counters and bars day after day, to minister to the appetites and gratification of this class of unfortunate and wretched humanity. Here are at least eighty thousand persons of our State, that are adding nothing to its prosperity, happiness or purity, but contrary-wise, idleness, crime and misery are the fruits of their efforts. One of the papers of San Francisco, the Call, says of the "one hundred and twenty thousand persons of that city, seventy thousand produced nothing, but lived upon the sweat and toil of others. And of this seventy thousand, ten thousand persons at least, deal out alcoholic and spirituous liquors, in the four thousand and two hundred shops, saloons and dark pits of this city." Says another writer: "Many towns of the interior are burdened with a like proportion of indolence and wretchedness from similar causes." This is a sad picture for our young and growing State, and yet I fear it is too true.

Dear young friends, what shall be the type of your characters. Shall they be molded by such influences; shall the pure springs of your nature be poisoned by these deadly miasmas? What shall be the attainments of moral culture amid the abundant means for improvement within your reach? Are you content in bearing no part in benefiting and blessing mankind? Behold the scope, the glory, the endless powers within your grasp; lay hold on them and avail yourselves of every facility that you may be favored with by a kind and loving Providence. Shall you leave your record on the page of history, shining with the glory of pure and holy deeds? Shall many rise up and "call you blessed?" Shall the earth smile and blossom, and heaven rejoice and be glad in your noble acts? In each of your personal characters will be the answer. The world needs good men and women; this town and State needs them to refine and bless and purify, and the poor, ignorant, and sorrowful of earth need your influence. Earth wants this generation of boys and girls to bless it; heaven is burdened with blessings to freely lavish upon them. Upon you will rest the burdens and responsibilities of the world for the next thirty years; your stamp and influence will be written for succeding generations; they will be impressed and molded by its character, whether of good or evil. The Governors and Representative, Judges and Counsellors of this great nation are to be selected from among you that are now growing up. The ministers of your churches and presidents of our colleges are among you, boys. Your characters are yet to be made. These dear little girls that read these thoughts, are to stamp their own impress and image upon the hearts and minds of these future American men; become their associates, partake with them in their labors, help to bear their burdens, and grace their mansions as wives and helpmeets, and share with them in their trials and victories, rewards and honors I said "Earth waits for you;" in one sense it does not. The world is advancing, progressing in knowledge, civilization and goodness; the bright rays of truth shine more brightly than ever before; ignorance now is a shame to any person living in this favored land of books and periodicals, schools and colleges. Sin of every character is a shame and disgrace; a burning blot and stain upon the character of any American who has the influence of the Bible, gospel, and churches of this free country; judgment enlightened by truth, conscience quickened by God's Spirit, and heart softened by the hallowed influence of grace, Christian love and good works. The next generation, you "boys and girls," must progress, too, to meet the demands of coming society and responsibilities; you need more wisdom, knowledge and goodness, than the present men and women, upon whose shoulders the burden of the State and world now rest. What is good now should be better the next generation; better government, better State of society, better moral and religious tone, better school and educational influence, everything better; larger minds, broader views, higher aspirations, more noble daring; liberty of thought and deed; free from selfishness and sin—"Radicalism" in everything. "Conservatism" means "compromise with sin and error," but radicalism is genuine reform. Let us love liberty, truth, goodness, purity, humanity, our country, heaven and God, and live to enjoy them.

A. C——.

WE hear a great deal about "carpet-baggers," especially from Sunset Cox and Frank Blair. It strikes us that both of these gentlemen do themselves a great injury in applying this epithet to Southern Congressmen, for if there ever was a race of "carpet-baggers" on the face of the earth, the Blair family belong to it. Does any body know where the Senator Blair belongs? The pestilent Montgomery of that ilk, carpet-bag in hand, hailing from half-a-dozen different States in the Union, has been a persistent office-begger, at Washington ever since he was of age; he claimed a residence in Virginia and Missouri, and run for United States Senator in Maryland, and lived on the line of the District of Columbia. Frank P. Blair was born in Kentucky, appointed to the army from the District of Columbia, and is the owner of estates and franchises in Tennessee, where he will run for Congress after he is defeated for Vice President. Sunset Cox was defeated in Ohio, run for the nomination to Congress in one of the New York City districts, was repudiated by Ohio and New York when nominated for the Austrain mission, and prates about "carpet-baggers." Heaven save the mark! We forbear to refer to California Democratic carpet-bag politicians.—Alta.

HONEST.—A Democratic paper, more honest than politic, says: "We might have triumphed with Chase and Hancock, but the Convention preferred to be beaten with Seymour and Blair. Perhaps four years more of adversity may teach us a little wisdom."

W. H. HILLHOUSE has removed his store into his new building, two doors below his old place of business. He is fixed up quite nicely, and his friends would do well to go and see him.

HOPE FOR THE AFFLICTED.—In another part of this paper will be found the advertisement of the celebrated Institute established by Dr. J. C. YOUNG, in 1850. In this age of deceit and charlatanism it is a boon to the suffering to point out to them where they are sure of obtaining the wished for relief and cure. Under the care of the skillful Doctor the sickand troubled can divest themselves of their burdens of pain; lay aside their cross, and secure health and happiness. If you are sick or in trouble, do not hesitate. Read the advertisement and follow the advice. Do not forget the number or the manner of directing your letters. Consultation Office, 540, Washington street, San Francisco.

☞ We have but little confidence in the trumpet tongued statements of the proprietors of advertised medicines generally, but are forced to concur in the opinion, uninformly expressed by all who have used PERRY DAVIS' PAIN KILLER, that it is a very valuable article, and one that it would be well for every household to have at hand, in case of bruises, scalds, burns, diarrhœa, dysenery, cholera, fever and ague, and the host of disease external and internal, which is adapted to cure or alleviate. No artical of medicine ever attained to such unbounded popularity and extensive diffusion. It has penetrated to every part, even the most remote, of the known world, bearing with it its healing influences more potent than those of the species of "Araby the blest." We are informed by our principal druggist, that they sell more of this article for exportation than any or all others, and that the demand is constantly increasing.—Salem Observer.

MEDICAL ADVICE.—DR. WM. K. DOHERTY'S Medical and Surgical Institute is becoming a sine quo non to the welfare of our State and health of our citizens; and his rapidly spreading reputation, although it may excite surprise, is but the signal of skill, and follows as the natu result of such a cause. We are personally acquainted with gentlemen who had suffered for years under chronic disease, and who had taken advantage of every available means that promised relief, but without success, until they called upon Dr. Doherty, who, in an incredibly short space of time, has given them entire relief. It is gratifying to announce this fact, because the Dr. is a gentleman who seeks, not by defamation of others to establish his reputation or ruin of another's fame. The Doctor conducts his own institute in such a manner must be gratifying to all his patients. He examines, advises, and recommends without charge, and the patient, after hearing his terms for treatment, can accept or reject at pleasure. In no case does the Doctor make a charge unless he effects a cure. This he is able to do, because he feels the confidence which long experience has given, and no doubt consolation which appertain to that confidence. Persons afflicted with either acute or chronic disease, would do well to consult the Doctor; at all events, it can do no harm, as for consultation he asks no fee; nor does he in sist on obedience to his advice unless the patient places himself under his care. His offices are on Sacramento street, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship office.—News.

OF DEATHS, that annually occur, are caused by Preventable Diseases, and the greater portion of those complaints would, if Radway's Ready Relief or Pills, (as the case may require,) were administered when pain or uneasiness or when pain or uneasiness or slight sickness is experienced, be exterminated from the system in a few hours. PAIN, no matter from what cause, is almost instantly cured by the Ready Relief. In cases of Cholera, Diarrhœa, Cramps, Spasms, Bilious Cholic, in fact all Pains, Aches and Infirmities either in the Stomach, Bowels, Bladder, Kidneys, or the Joints, Muscles, Arms, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Fever and Ague, Headache, Toothache, &c., will in a FEW MINUTES yield to the soothing influence of the Ready Relief.

Sudden Colds, Coughs, Influenza, Diptheria, Hoarseness, Sore Throat, Chills, Fever and Ague, Mercurial Pains, Scarlet Fever, &c., &c., take from four to six of Radway's Pills, and also a teaspoonful of the Ready Relief in a glass of warm water, sweetened with sugar or honey; bathe the throat, head and chest with Ready Relief, (if Ague or Intermittent Fever, bathe the spine also,) in the morning you will be cured.

How the Ready Relief Acts.

In a few minutes the patient will feel a slight tingling irritation, and the skin becomes reddened; if there is much distress in the stomach, the Relief will assist nature in removing the offending cause,—a general warmth is felt throughout the entire body, and its diffusive stimulative properties rapidly courses through every vein and tissue of the system, arousing the slothful and partially paralyzed glands and organs to renewed and healthy action, perspiration follows, and the surface of the body feels increased heat. The sickness at stomach, colds, chills, headache, oppressed breathing, the soreness of the throat, and all pains, either internally or externally, rapidly subside, and the patient falls into a tranquil sleep, awakes refreshed, invigorated, cured.

It will be found that in using the Relief externally, either on the spine or across the kidneys, or over the stomach and bowels, that for several days a pleasing warmth will be felt, showing the length of time it continues its influence over the diseased parts.

☞ Price of R. R. R. 50 cents per bottle. Sold by Druggists and Country Merchants, Grocers, &c.

RADWAY & CO.,

TYPHOID FEVER.

This disease is not only cured by Dr. Radway's Relief and Pills, but prevented. If exposed to it, put one teaspoonful of Relief in a tumbler of water. Drink this before going out in the morning, and several times through the day. Take one of Radway's Pills one hour before dinner, and one on going to bed.

If seized with fever, take 4 to 6 of the Pills every six hours, until copious discharges from the bowels take place; also drink the Relief diluted with water, and bathe the entire surface of the body with Relief. Soon a powerful perspiration will take place, and you will feel a pleasant heat throughout the system. Keep on taking the Relief repeatedly, every four hours, also the Pills. A cure will be sure to follow. The Relief is strengthening, stimulating, soothing, and quieting; it is sure to break up the Fever and to neutralize the poison.

People of sense and udgment have learned to use

PLANTATION BITTERS.

Dyspepsia, with its symptoms, Headache, Heartburn, Feverish Lips, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., can be cured by using PLANTATION BITTERS.

This is the most successful tonic of the age. Young, middle-aged and old are delighted with its effects.

The first trial always has a marked effect.

No change in diet is necessary. Eat all you wish, of the best and most nutritious food.

It is the greatest cure ever known for an overloaded and distressed stomach, which it relieves in a few moments.

We know that we have the best and most popular medicine in the world. We are not afraid to show what it is composed of.

PHYSICIANS ARE COMPELLED TO RECOMMEND IT

CALISAYA BARK has been celebrated for over two hundred years, and was sold during the reign of Louis XVI, King of France for the enormous price of its weight in silver. It is remarkable for Dyspepsia, Fevers, Weakness, Constipation, etc.

CASCARILLA BARK.—For Diarrhœa, Colic and diseases of the stomach and bowels.

DANDELION.—For Inflammation of the Loins, and Dropsical Affections.

CAMOMILE FLOWERS.—For enfeebled digestion.

S.T-1860-X.

Another wonderful ingredient, of Spanish origin imparting beauty to the complexion and brilliancy to the mind, is yet unknown too the commerce of the world, and we with ehld its name for the present.

With this recipe before the community, and evidence of effects meeting them on all sides, the success of DR. DRAKE stands founded upon the rock of truth. Almost every family has some cases of suffering which the PLANTATION BITTERS will alleviate and cure.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon, is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our United States stamp over the cork unmutilated, and our signature on steel plate side label.

ORIGINAL DEFECTIVE

DUTCH FLAT ENQUIRER.

BEYOND.

When my last stifled fluttering sighs
Have upward borne my latest prayer,
And a cold form before you lies,
In place of all that once was there—

When the white linnen back you lay,
And gently gaze on what was dear,
And softly tread, and whispering, say
Words which you think I almost hear—

Speak thus, O friends! with tender smile;
"This is not she whom now we mourn,
This was her raiment for awhile—
This but the semblance she has borne.

"Her mortal vestment lieth there—
The outer dress her spirit wore,
She has gone forth some other where,
And laid it off forevermore,

"In other scenes she takes a part,
In other fields she musing walks
And, bearing us upon her heart.
With other friends she gently talks.

"She tells of us; and how our love,
Though deep, and true, and full of grace.
Her thirst of soul could not remove,
Nor sense of orphanage efface.

She knows that life will soon be o'er—
She sees that time is but a day—
And smiles upon the other shore
While we on this in sadness pray.

"Backward she looks to earth and time,
And with her new-found freedom thrills;
Forward she gazes, where sub lime
Arises the everlasting hills.

"Rejoicing thus she hastens on,
Exulting thus she forth is led,
While we all sorrowful and lone,
Watch the pale form and call her dead."

THE Memphis Avalanche is disgusted by the action of the Tennessee Democratic Convention in resolving that secession is a dead theory. The Avalanche says: As an original secessionist, we are willing to abide and acquiesce in the judgement pronounced upon the late "wager of battle;" but in case the American people should grant a new trial in the case, either by ballot or bullets, we do not wish to be stopped by any unnecessary admissions.

MEDICAL.

THE SCIENCE OF HEALTH!

Every Man His Own Physician.

HOLLOWAY'S PILLS,

AND

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT!

Disorders of the Stomach, Liver and Bowels.

The Stomach is the great centre which influences the health or disease of the system—Always debilitated by excess—Indigestion, offensive breath and physical prostration are the natural consequences. Allied to the brain, it is the source of headaches, mental depression, nervous complaints and nurfreshing sleep. The Liver becomes affected and generates bilious disorders, pains in the side, &c. The Bowels sympathize by Costive ness, Diarrhœa and Dysentery. The principle action of these Pills is on the stomach, and the liver lungs, bowels and kidneys participate in their recuperative and regenerative operation.

Erysipelas and Salt Rheum,

Are two of the most common and virulent disorder prevalent on this continent, to these the Ointment is especially antagonistic, its "modus operandi" is first to eradicate the venom and then complete the cure.

Bad Legs, Old Sores, and Ulcers.

Cases of many years standing, that have pertinaciously refused to yield to any other remedy or treatment, have invariably succumbed to a few applications of this powerful unguent.

Eruptions on the Skin.

Arising from a bad state of the blood or chronic biliousness are eradicated, and a clear and transparent surface established by the restorative action of this Ointment. It surpasses many of the cosmetics and other toilet preparations in its power to dispel rashes and other disagreements of the face.

Female Complaints.

Whether in the young or old, married or single, at the dawn of womanhood, or the turn of life, these tonic medicines display so decided an influence that a marked improvement is soon perceptible in the health of the patient. Being a purely vegetable preparation, they are a safe and reliable remedy for all classes of females in every condition of health and station of life.

Piles and Fistula.

Every form and feature of these prevalent and stubborn disorders is eradicated locally and entirely by the use of this emollient; warm fomentations should precede its application. Its healing qualities will be found to be thorough and invariable.

Both the Ointment and Pills should be used in the following cases:

Bunions,	Piles,	Sore Legs,
Burns,	Rheumatism,	Sore Breasts,
Chilblains,	Ringworm,	Sore Heads,
Fistula,	Salt Rheum,	Sore Throats,
Gout,	Scalds,	Sprains,
Stiff Joints,	Tetter,	Ulcers,
Lumbago,	Skin Diseases	Venereal Sores,
Sores of all kinds,	Mercurial affections,
Swelled Glands,	Wounds of all kinds.

CAUTION.—None are genuine unless the words "HOLLOWAY, New York and London" are discernible as a Water Mark in every leaf of the book of directions around each pot or box. The same may be plainly seen by holding the leaf to the light. A handsome reward will be given to any one rendering such information as may lead to the detection of any party or parties counterfeiting the medicines or vending the same, knowing them to be spurious.

Sold at the manufactory of Professor Holloway, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, and by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicine throughout the civilized world.

There is considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

PHYSICIANS AND OTHERS

PLEASE NOTICE.

I make no secret of ingredients. Helmbold's Extract Buchu is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, and Juniper Berries, selected with great care, prepared in vacuo and according to rules of Pharmacy and Chemistry.

These ingredients are known as the most valuable Diuretics afforded.

A DIURETIC

is that which acts upon the kidneys.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

ACTS GENTLY

Upon the kidneys and bladder, free from all injurious properties, and immediate in its action.

FOR THE SATISFACTION OF ALL

See Medical Properties contained in the Dispensatory of the United States, of which the following is a correct copy:

"BUCHU. Its odor is strong, aromatic and somewhat aromatic, it taste bitterish and analogous to that of mint. It is given chiefly in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, morbid irritation of the Bladder and Urethr, diseases of the Prostrate, and Retention or the Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. MR. H. T. HELMBOLD:

DEAR SIR:—In regard to the question asked me as to my opinion about BUCHU, I would say that I have used and sold the article in various forms for the past thirty years. I do not think there is any form or preparation of it I have not used or known to be used, in the various diseases where such medicate agent would be indicated.

You are aware as well as myself, that it has been extensively employed in the various diseases of the bladder and kidneys, and the reputation it has acquired in my judgement, is warranted by the facts.

I have seen and used as stated before, every form of BUCHU—the powdered leaves, the simple decoction, tincture, fluid extracts; and I am at a loss what of any preparation of that plant at all equal to yours. Eighteen years experience ought, I think, to give me the right to judge of its merits, and with all prejudice or partiality, I give yours precedence over all others.

I rely on your Buchu for its effects on patients, I have cured with it and seen cured with it, more diseases of the bladder and kidneys than I have ever seen cured with any other proprietary compound of whatever name, or any other Buchu.

Respectfully yours, &c.,

MEDICAL.

PRIVATE Medical INSTITUTE,
Established by
DR. J. C. YOUNG, IN 1850,
For the cure of all Private Diseases and
ALL FEMALE COMPLAINTS.

CONSULTING OFFICE,
536 WASHINGTON STREET,
SAN FRANCISCO. .....CALIFORNIA.
NO CURE, NO PAY.

Consultation by letter, or otherwise, FREE. For direction of letters, see below.

THIS CELEBRATED INSTITUTE

has enjoyed on this coast an uninterrupted success of fourteen years, and has become one of the renowned Hospitals of the age. What the celebrated Lock Hospital is to London, and the no less renowned establishment of Ricord's to Paris, this Institute has become to the Pacific coast. The thousands annually received and cured place it in point of number of patients among the very first of the world, and the success of its treatment ranks it second to none.

PRIVATE DISEASES IN MALES and IRREGULARITIES IN FEMALES are the great destroyers of health. They insidiously attack the system and gradually undermine and destroy it; they drive the bloom from the cheek, the lustre from the eye, the strength from the frame; they give to the world puny and diseased offspring, and poison, through successive generations the race of man. The marks can be seen in Scrofula, Consumption, Cripples, the Idiot, the Paralytic, the Insane, etc.

There is no more terrible scourge to the human race than those diseases arising from the contamination of Venereal Poison. The mildest forms, by retreating to the blood, hold over the afflicted one the exact action that is liable at any moment to fasten and blight to utterly destroy—all earthly hopes.

MERCURY, recognized as the most fatal medical enemy to man, combining with the Venereal, doubles its dangers. Those who have been treated with that pernicious mineral poison are not cured; the disease has only assumed a new form.

Do not be satisfied with partial cures!

that leave the poison to crawl through the system eating its way into the tissues and organs beneath the apparently smooth surface, to burst out in the future with a virulence that will baffle the effects of medicine, WHEN PERFECT CURES can be obtained by consulting a physician whom long practice and thorough investigation into the causes of DISEASES of the URINARY ORGANS enables to determine at once the nature of the disease.

In all cases entrusted to the Doctor's care, PERFECT, SPEEDY and PERMANENT Cures are Always Guaranteed.

In syphilis and its attendants, gonorrhœa and its accompanying diseases, and all diseases of the Bladder, Kidneys, and prostate; Seminal Weakness; Diseases of the Heart and Lungs; Dyspepsia; Indigestion, Impotency; Incipient consumption, and all diseases of the urinary organs, in either sex, cure always warranted, or NO PAY REQUIRED at the

Private Medical Institute,
No. 536 Washington street, San Francisco, Cal.

Seminal Weakness or Spermatorrhœa.

The young man who experiences that growing weakness in his muscular and mental organization, should stop to consider whence it arises. He will find in the weakness of the back, trembling of the limbs, disordered digestion, unaccountable failing of the powers of the mind, distaste for society, dread or impending trouble, forebodings of evil, sleeplessness, troubled and lascivious dreams, accompanied by growing deafness, loss of muscular power, and numerous other symptoms of disorganization, the positive traces of that most terrible and destructive of all diseases Seminal Weakness—wasting away his powers, destroying his hope of life and manhood, and dragging him along the broken path of his existence towards a premature and loathsome grave. To him who despairs life dribbling out in the diseharge, the vital principle of existence in nocturnal and diurnal emissions, the mere cessation of its appearance brings no assurance of relief.

Further than mere office, this safeguard and hope of manhood, brings to such an one no hope of cure; but adds to his misery in the knowledge that the one who looks to him for so much of the happiness, is a victim to the evil, and an unconscious companion of his pain. He adds to his misery and disorder until hope leaves him. There is no resource except in proper and skilful treatment. Consult them at once, a physician whose long practice and careful research has made thoroughly conversant with every phase of the disease. Those who have become the victims of solitary vices, that dreadful, fascinating and destructive habit, which sills thousands of sick rooms with parasytics and I consumptives, and hundreds of untimely graves with its unpitied victims, should consult, without a moment's delay, one who will sympathize with their sufferings. To such the Doctor would especially address himself, giving to each and a assurance of a PERFECT and PERMANENT CURE without hindrance to business, change of diet, or fear of exposure.

Do not forget the address. See below.

Important to Females.

When a female is in trouble, or afflicted with disease, weakness of the back and limbs, pain in the head, dimness of sight, loss of muscular power, palpitation of the heart, irritability, nervousness, extreme urinary difficulties, derangement of digestive functions, general debility, vaginitis, all diseases of the womb, hysteria, sterility and all other diseases peculiar to females, she should go or write at once to the celebrated female doctor, W. K. Doherty, at his Medical Institute, and consult him about her troubles and disease. Let no false delicacy prevent you, but apply immediately and save yourself from painful sufferings—and premature death. All Married Ladies, whose delicate health or other circumstances prevent an increase in their families, should write or call at Dr. W. K. Doherty's Medical Institute, where they will receive every possible information. The Doctor's offices are so arranged that he can be consulted without fear of observation.

To Correspondents.

Patients residing in any part of the State, however distant, who may desire the opinion and advice of Dr. Doherty in their respective cases, and who think proper to submit a written statement of such in preference to holding a personal interview, are assured that their communications will be held most sacred, and confidential.

If the case be fully and candidly described, personal communication will be unnecessary, as instructions, medicines and the general treatment of the case, including the remedies, will be forwarded with all delay, and in such a manner as to prevent interference the present of the patient's business. Consultation by letter or otherwise, FREE. Persons residing at a distance can be treated by
